

INVISIBLE ARCHITECTURE

A WORKSHOP EXPLORING HOW BUILDINGS AFFECT OUR LIVES AND OUR DREAMS

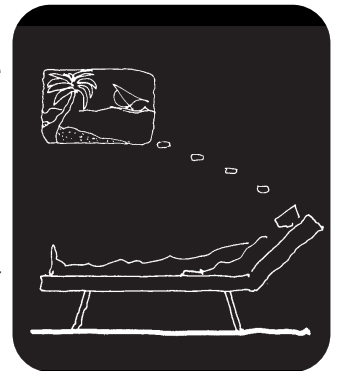

SUNDAY OCTOBER 11TH 2009 - 10AM TO 4.30PM
THE CHANNON HALL, MILL STREET, THE CHANNON
FEE: $80 - COUPLES $145
BOOKING & ENQUIRIES:
PHONE - 02 6689 1578
EMAIL - bcarter61@optusnet.com.au
ONLINE - livingarchitecturecentre.com

This energising mix of theory, fact and real life drama is an invitation to not only imagine your dream house but to experience it in all of its many dimensions.

This journey will encourage you to rediscover the architect of your childhood dreams and nurture this faculty back into life.

You will also learn how your dreams and reality might together be used to shape a sustainable future for people and planet.

WORKSHOP CONTENT

2D Drawing and 3D Modelmaking - expressing your self
Architecture & Economics - making the connections
Exploring Outer & Inner Space - discovering who we are
The Architecture of the Womb - a common inheritance
Dream House - exploring the house inside
Buildings & People - the likenesses
Sexing Space - perceiving the gender of territory
Activating your Sheltermaker Gene - living in 4 dimensions
Playing House - reclaiming the past
Living your Architecture - imagining the future

TUTOR

Peter Cowman is an Irish architect, teacher, writer and the director of the Living Architecture Centre, the internet school of architecture.

He began teaching people how to design their own homes in 1989.

He has a special interest in on mortgage-free self-building.

He teaches and lectures internationally.

Further information of all aspects of Living Architecture are available from livingarchitecturecentre.com

THIS STIMULATING HANDS-ON WORKSHOP WILL FOREVER CHANGE
HOW YOU EXPERIENCE ARCHITECTURE, LIFE AND DREAM ...